FIFTY-THIRD YEAR No. 47.

CEDARVILLE, OHIO, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 31, 1930

PRICE, $1.50 A YEAR

NEWS LETTER FROM STATE DEPARTMENTS

COLUMBUS, Ohio. — Secretary of State Clarence J. Brown has arranged to receive complete election returns on the night of November 4th and in turn furnish them to the people of Ohio with the least possible delay. Secretary Brown will broadcast the returns by radio at regular intervals throughout the night. Eight long distance phones will be installed, each in charge of a capable operator, to take the figures furnished by Boards of Elections in the eighty-eight counties in the state. The sheets will be turned over to the superintendent of the recording and tabulating room where forty experts will be employed until the last county is heard from. All of these people are from the various divisions of Secretary Brown's department.

Assurance of the utmost cooperation on the part of members of Boards of Elections and also promises that precinct officials will likewise make every effort possible to get their reports of the results of the election on November 4th, promptly to the office has been made to Secretary of State Clarence J. Brown. "Schools of instruction" are being held by the Boards of Elections in every county in the state and are being attended by the precinct officials of such counties. The purpose of these meetings is to familiarize the judges and clerks with their duties as prescribed by the new election law and to lend system to their work so that results may be quickly tabulated and reported.

The open hunting season is drawing near and the nimrod population of the state is inspecting equipment and getting it in shape for Saturday, November 15th, when the Johnny Cottontails will have to take to cover to escape the onslaught upon them. The season will last until January first with a limit of five rabbits per hunter in one day. Hunters and others handling the game should be careful and exercise great care and caution in order to avoid tularemia, the disease so prevalent among members of the hare family. Hungarian partridges may be hunted in the open season also, with a limit of six in one day and cock pheasants also, with a limit of two per day. It is the open season also for opossum, raccoon, skunk, fox, mink, and muskrat.

Storage space at the big institution in West Spring Street, otherwise known as the Ohio Penitentiary, presided over by Warden Preston E. Thomas, is at a premium at the present time due to the fact that tons of vegetables and fruit have been prepared and canned, ready for the tables this winter. It takes some food to feed 4,500 men three times per day. A sample menu for a Sunday dinner is: roast pork, gravy, roasted potatoes, bread dressing, pickled blackberry pie, bread and coffee. Of course throughout the week the menu is not so elaborate but the prisoners are given generous portions. Then there are the pancakes—how would your wife and daughters like to prepare pancakes for 4,500 men?

A lively winter season is anticipated in the Capital City by hotel managers, restaurants and theatres. The eighty-ninth General Assembly convenes early in January and that means scores of daily out-of-town visitors until final adjournment is made by the legislative body. The several dozen conventions have been booked and with the influx of delegates and friends a stimulation in business is forecast by those in "on the know."

An excellent program has been prepared for the annual conference of Ohio Health Commissioners to be held in the Capital City November 18th to 21st inclusive. Director Charles A. Neal of the State Department of Health will call the conference to order Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock and deliver his annual address. Noted speakers and health experts from the larger cities will participate. A luncheon at Ohio State University will be one of the features and the guests will be conducted through the departmental laboratories.

SCHOOL NEWS

Small We Have the Cafeteria Supper. In consideration of the present economic conditions, it had been thought best not to have the annual cafeteria supper. However, since that decision was reached, many patrons have voiced their wishes that this affair should be held. In the past, this supper has netted a considerable sum which has been used to procure supplies needed in various departments of the school.

During the next week, a questionnaire will be sent to the parents. We are taking this means to discover the sentiment of the community on the question. Please sign one of the slips and return by your oldest child. Your answers to this questionnaire will be used in making the final decision.

Chapel. Chapel, Monday morning, was in charge of the Junior Class. Nelson Fox, the president, announced the program. After the Scripture by John Webster, there was a piano trio by Marjorie Strohbridge, Isadore Owens, and Carma Hostetler, followed by a reading by Isadore Owens, and a vocal duet by Loeila Griffin and Marjorie Strohbridge, accompanied by Carma Hostetler.

The speaker for the morning was Rev. R. M. Fox from the Presbyterian Church in Clifton. His topic was "What About Tomorrow?" He stressed the importance of scientific discoveries as they influence the future. Teacher's Meeting. School will be closed all day Friday due to the meeting of Central Ohio Teachers' Association to be held at Columbus.

Home Ec. News. For the past week, the Freshman Division of the Home Economics Class have been studying milk. They finished their reports Wednesday and the next day enjoyed a trip to the Martindale Dairy, where they saw in practice many of the things about which they had been studying. The most interesting was the cooling of the milk before bottling it.

The Breakfast Unit will be considered next by the class.

Senior News. During the next week members of the Senior Class will go to the Corbett Studio in Dayton to have their portraits taken.

Reception-Hitchhiker Nuptials. Students and faculty join in congratulating Miss Katharine Bonington, former Home Economics teacher, who was united in marriage to Kenneth Hutchison, Wednesday evening. Among the guests at the wedding were: Supt. and Mrs. H. D. Furst, Miss Carrie M. Rife, Mrs. Anna Wilson, Miss Ora Hanna, Mrs. Hazel Edwards.

Cedarville Downs Osborn 21-0. Friday afternoon the Cedarville football team, by a 21-0 victory, rudely shattered Osborn's dream of an undefeated season.

The first half was scoreless, although the Osborn boys outplayed their opponents, and several times marched from one end of the field to the other, only to be stopped at Cedarville's defended line. Osborn's only real threat for goal was in the second quarter, when they were in possession of the ball five yards from the goal-line on second down. However the half ended, and of course the second half was begun by the kick-off.

During the third quarter a run from a lateral pass brought Cedarville to the line-yard line, and after three gains thru the line Buckner carried the ball across on the last down. Peterson gained the point by an end run.

In the fourth quarter, a pass brought Cedarville close to the goal again, and a beautiful pass from Peterson to Rife netted another touchdown. Harris' place-kick for point was successful. Later in the quarter the ball was advanced from Cedarville's twenty-yard line for a touchdown in three plays, two of which were completed passes from Peterson, and the third was Buckner's spectacular run of twenty yards, which scored the third touchdown. Custer gained the point by a fine drop-kick, making the final score 21-0.

Cedarville very nicely scored each point after goal, a rather unusual happening. By the unexpected victory Cedarville remains undefeated after five games, and only one team has scored against it.

This week's game was played against Greenfield, Thursday afternoon. A full account of this game will be given next week.

Bitter Contest Over School Bond Issue

Jamestown and Silvercreek townships are involved in one of the bitterest contests ever waged in the county as to a bond issue of $115,000 for a centralized school.

The school authorities in the two school districts after making a survey decided it would be economy to centralize the schools where more efficient work would be possible. The same plan was adopted as used here a number of years ago and it has been so successful that not a complaint can be heard.

School operation, whether under the old plan or the centralized plan, costs quite a sum each year. Under the antiquated plan of years back it is a waste of funds with little accomplishment for the money expended.

There has been criticism of Ohio schools to some extent that costs were excessive and many requirements dictated from a central authority in Columbus have at times been provoking. The average citizen is not always in position to pass on the standard of education. Ohio must keep pace with other states and her boys and girls must meet the required standard or they are not only denied admission to institutions of higher learning in other states but Ohio as well.

With the experience Cedarville has had it would be impossible to get even a majority vote here in this township to return to the school methods of days gone by.

MAIN STREET FLUSHED

The replacing of street paving and sewerage systems due to the water and sewerage systems has been completed and Main street has resumed a normal appearance. Monday the street was flushed and remarked for parking regulations.

We doubt if any town of this size was ever torn up more at one time than what Cedarville experienced during the summer. All evidence has been removed and the town as a whole presents a better appearance. There may be some of the trenches to fill following a period of freezing this winter.

Those who contemplate having taps made for water or sewer, or both should do so this fall so that the trenches will settle during the winter. If a trench must be cut across your yard have it done this fall and be rid of the mess next summer. Near seventy-five taps have been made thus far, which indicates the splendid support local people are giving the new system.

THE TAX LEVY

Electors will be given a ballot Tuesday for the two mill tax levy for electric street lights in the village. For years the cost of electric lights for the streets of the village has been met in this way.

The levy is the same as it has been in the past and does not increase your taxes one cent. We will attention to this ballot so that it will be lost sight of on election day. In the past there has been no opposition and none is anticipated this time for no one would want to live in a town with dark streets. It has been the custom to raise funds for street lighting in this manner and every cent collected under this levy goes for light alone.

More Waste Money On Springfield Pike

The Ohio State Highway department continues the wasteful policy in the manner in which the Clifton-Springfield pike is being handled—evidently for the benefit of the gravel interests.

Thousands upon thousands of dollars have been wasted on this six mile stretch of road by gravel, labor and wear and tear on expensive road machinery.

Last year the machinery parade continued day after day but no results were accomplished other than stir up the dust and provide employment for a few men. Last fall a tar mat was put on the gravel and clay road that cost in excess of $1,500 a mile. It did not last two months and before winter was well under way traffic over parts of the road was impossible.

This summer the road was plowed and the machinery parade continued day after day—all at the expense of the automobile owner who contributed the gasoline tax.

At present the state department is treating the same old gravel and clay base with oil and what a mess it is. Motorists are warned to stay off the road at least till freezing weather is at hand. If the rains ever set in the road will be unfit for use as it was last winter. A fine example of a "business administration."

In contrast the Cincinnati Times-Star Wednesday evening stated the Ohio State Highway Department was to build two more fifty-foot roads in that county. According to Director Robert Wade, Hamilton county has already received $600,000 state funds for road purposes this year. The roads are concrete and fifty feet or more wide with cement curbs. It is unfortunate the Springfield-Glenn pike is not in Hamilton county, Gov. Cooper's home county. Motorists in this section of the state know now where their gasoline tax money goes under the "business administration."

OHIO BELL GETS APPROVAL FOR PURCHASE

The Herald has been informed that the Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington, D. C., has granted the Ohio Bell Telephone Company authority to purchase The Cedarville Telephone Company, which was purchased several months ago by J. W. Stoffer, Troy, Ohio, head of The Troy Telephone Company, from local interests. The Bell Company received permission from the Ohio Public Utilities Commission to complete the transaction and now the federal authorities have acted in the affirmative.

Mr. Stoffer stated Wednesday he was not sure just when the actual change would be made but he hoped by November 1st. Additions of the Bell Company are at work now on the books of the local company and are setting up their system of bookkeeping and informing employees of their duties to conform to the rules in force elsewhere over the Bell system. The Cedarville Company has withdrawn its schedule of rates with the commission and the Bell Company immediately filed a new schedule, but there will be no change at the present time.

It has been reported that the Bell Company would within the next few months make many changes in equipment in the local plant and rebuild some of the toll lines. It is also expected additional lines will be built between Xenia and this place to improve the service.

CLARENCE BROWN FOR SECRETARY OF STATE

Tuesday is election day and in the turmoil of a political campaign, especially when there are signs of mixed voting, of overlooking some really outstanding men on the Republican ticket that should be re-elected. The Herald wishes to commend to the voters, irrespective of political parties, the candidacy of Clarence J. Brown, for secretary of state on the Republican ticket.

From the standpoint of service Mr. Brown deserves re-election for the reason his tenure of office has been one demanding clean elections and an honest count. The secretary of state being in head of the election machinery in Ohio is responsible and he has done much to guarantee the electors honest elections.

No secretary of state has ever faced as many embarrassing problems from a political standpoint than Mr. Brown. At no time has he flinched or allowed political pressure to sway him from doing his duty. He has removed more than one board of electors and Republican members affected the same penalty of removal as Democratic members.

Mr. Brown by profession is an editor and publisher but by adopting modern business methods in public office he has won the admiration of the business men and public in general who have had transactions with the state.

Irrespective of party lines we believe Mr. Brown deserves your support on Tuesday for secretary of state.

Contract Signed For Softening Plant

The contract for the new softening plant which the Municipal Service Company, Dayton, will install on the local water works grounds, was signed Wednesday by the Board of Public Affairs and Mayor Richards. The company expects to start work on the plant this week and material will be shipped in at once. Council passed the necessary legislation a few weeks ago which carried rates and terms of the contract.

The Dayton company is installing the local plant to have a plant near that city for demonstration purposes that authorities over the country can be brought here and shown what the plant will do. An entire new process has been used in this plant from what has been in use for years back. Instead of lime the new plant will use zeolite. It is claimed the new process will soften water for one third the cost of the old method.

DRY VOTERS CALLED TO BATTLE FRONT

The wets and the dries are at it again and the contest is set for election day, November 4th. The prize both are seeking is the election of a United States Senator. The call sounded in the rural section is to battle and a solid front for the return of Roscoe McCullough to the Senate. The wets have united behind Robert Bulkley and the big city vote seems to be seventy-five per cent for this candidate. The economic situation has broken the lines of the dry forces in the rural sections and there seems to be general indifference as to the result. The dry forces in the cities seem to be helpless and for this reason the rural sections are urged to stand unitedly for McCullough's election.

The question naturally arises as to why rural Ohio must save the day for the eighteenth amendment. The answer is none other than prohibition enforcement is a political football. Every effort has been made to make the rural counties dryer by enforcement and the urban counties wetter by lack of enforcement. Thousands of voters in the cities that first supported prohibition have become disgusted and for no other reason than enforcement in the cities has been a failure. The driest voter along with the wettest voter admits that McCullough has no chance whatever with the city vote. Will rural Ohio be able to save the day to keep the state on record as reaffirming support for the eighteenth amendment?

The present state administration has not the best record on prohibition enforcement in the cities. That department has been as weak as the state banking department. Just this week Columbus citizens petitioned Gov. Cooper for the removal of his prohibition commissioner, Robert Beethman, who ignored charges of violation of the liquor laws on the part of a Columbus Republican boss that used an election warehouse to store liquor. Some weeks ago members of the Franklin County W. C. T. U. started an investigation that resulted in one arrest but it did not have the support of the state prohibition department.

The Republican party is being made the goat this year that Cincinnati politicians might retain the control of the party. It was unfortunate that Gov. Cooper chose Ed Schorr, a liberal, for a prominent state office. It was disaster when the Governor forced Schorr, at the demand of Cincinnati politicians, as chairman of the Republican campaign committee. Dry Republicans have not been overly zealous for the Governor since he cast his political fortune with the wet Cincinnati gang politicians.

As a result the party has the wet tag attached and the campaign for Senator McCullough has been made the harder. In addition the leading wet press of the state is supporting the Governor and opposing McCullough. On the Democratic side there is a division with the Enquirer editorially supporting the Governor, a Republican, and taking the lead for Bulkley for Senator. No support is given George White, Democratic nominee for governor, because he refused to join with Bulkley in advocating repeal of the eighteenth amendment.

The state is suffering from an overdose of Cincinnati wet gang politics. The Republican party has been made a victim and it is going to be up to rural Ohio to elect Senator McCullough, or his defeat is certain.

SHOULD HAVE CENSUS TAKING NOW

When you drive about a city now about the first thing you notice are the numerous signs "House for Rent." Probably few have given thought to the idea that now would have been the time to take the census. Instead of cities being overrun with rural residents that had employment there we now find owing to the depression that many thousands of these families have been forced to return to the country, probably their native place of abode, where living is cheaper and life much happier.

The rules laid down for the past census were very unfair to the rural sections and no doubt were formulated strictly with the view of giving the cities every advantage to boost their population. If reports are correct most of the cities have had a large decrease in population within the past few months. It is estimated that in the city of Detroit 85,000 people have left the city due to unemployment.

VOTE NO ON AMENDMENT

The proposed amendment to divide inheritance taxes so as to include public schools with municipalities and townships does not mean what it says on the surface.

The tax spenders in Columbus want control of as much of the tax money as possible and see a chance to gobble a share of the inheritance tax in addition to the one half share which the state now takes.

To attract voters and influence them in making this possible the schools were used but a string is tied to the proposed constitutional change wherein if it meets a majority vote the legislature will be given power to again make division to suit the tax spenders. Again if this amendment goes through you have no assurance what the new tax law under classification will be. It is going to be safer to stand pat on what we have until you know what the classificationists will hand you. Take no change and vote "No."

Jewish homeland in Palestine, attack savagely recent utterances and decisions of the British government which was the Palestine mandate.

Britain proposes to stop, or greatly decrease, Jewish immigration into Palestine.

Jewish organizations accuse the British of putting the welfare of Arabs, who have been in Palestine for 700 years, ahead of Zionist welfare.

The British do not mention it, but they have more than 100,000,000 Mohammedans in the empire, and, at most, three or four million Jews. They do not want to annoy the Mohammedans by irritating Arabs, who are also Mohammedans.

The brother of the Japanese emperor took his wife to the opera in Germany and obtained a "close-up" of western civilization.

The opera, about colored people, was called "The Rose and Fall of the City of Mahogany."

Members of a Fascist mob yelled:

"Hail Hitler!" and "Germany awake!"

To make sure that Germany would awake they threw bombs, unpleasantly described in the Associated Press dispatch as "stink bombs."

It is proposed to spend two hundred millions, or so, of public money to help the unemployed. Corporations are urged to tax themselves and contribute.

But you are told there must be on

"dole," none of the English system under which government gives the minimum necessary to live, in cash, directly to those out of work.

Everybody hopes it will not be necessary to start the dole here. On the other hand, if money were given direct to those that need it to be spent by themselves, that might be better than spending by committees, and avoid the unpleasant feeling of charity.

COLUMBIAN NOTES

The "Vagabond Feet" of Kentucky, Harry Smith, announced the family and children, Wednesday, with a reading of the poem. It was one of the best poems that has appeared in the school for some time.

Rev. H. R. Blair of Tal Ka, Korea, spoke in chapel Monday. His account of conditions in Korea was interesting and instructive. Rev. Allen is a missionary in Korea under the care of the Presbyterian church. He went to Korea twenty-five years ago.

The Y. W. C. A. will give a waffle breakfast at the residence of Wm. Marshall, Friday morning, November 7th from 7 o'clock till 9. They will hold their Communitarian Service in the Chapel, Thursday, November 13th at 7 P. M.

Everything has been arranged for the Bible Reading Contest. It is a men's contest. It will come off at 7:30 P. M. The place is in the Presbyterian church. It is under the direction of Dean Steele. This will be the first men's Bible Reading Contest in the history of Cedarville College.

Good music will be rendered under the direction of Miss Berkley. The Girls' Bible Reading Contest will be held next semester. Come and hear the boys and then you will be fully prepared to judge who are the better readers, boys or girls, when you attend the girls' contest next semester. Few colleges have even one Bible Reading Contest a year. Bring a silver offering with you. The proceeds go to pay expenses for judges and the church. What is left goes for equipping the college.

The girls gave the Halloween social Thursday night in the Alford Memorial Gymnasium. The lighting and decorations were weird and beautiful. The girls were excellent. The games were entertaining. They way in was as hard to get through as an ancient labyrinth. The girls excelled themselves.

We are glad to welcome to the Alford Memorial the Annual Meeting of the Elders of Dayton Presbytery, next Thursday night November 6th. Our male quartette is to furnish the songs for the evening. Judge S. C. Wright, an honored alumnus of Cedarville College, is chairman of the Elders' Association of Dayton Presbytery. It is largely through his influence that the meeting is held here.

The Junior class of Cedarville College is making all arrangements to give their annual entertainment in the near future. It will be a college play with other features. The title is "Cedarville College Cabaret." It promises to be full of fun and surely will be a rip-roaring success.

Dean Angeline gave a brief but interesting report in chapel of her trip to Toledo to the Classical Conference of which she is a member and councilor. She also read a very instructive editorial on Vergil.

Here's to our football team for their victory at Rio Grande, 34-0. May it be the turning of the tide for more victories from now till the end of the season.

Thanksgiving will be here in just a few more days. Cedarville College is grateful for the generous response to its call for contributions and pledges to the Maintenance and Expansion Fund for $15,000 to be raised by May 15, 1931. Let us make this a real Thanksgiving by sending in our check or our pledge to Cedarville College on or before Thanksgiving.

Reader, have you sent yours yet? No time like the present to help the college. Every dollar put into this fund will help to bring the needed endowment and the new buildings.

Think it over. Send a Thanksgiving check or pledge to Cedarville College to-day.

On Monday evening, October 30th, the members of the Philosophic Literary Society convened at the Carnegie Library Building to discuss the Southern United States.

After the meeting had been called to order by the President, Marion Hoeteler, the members sang several songs. In the business part of the meeting, the President presented in writing two proposed amendments to the constitution of the society.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION OF OHIO. ARTICLE XII, SECTION 9. OF THE CONSTITUTION OF OHIO, BEING THE STATE OF OHIO, IN ORDER TO THE ESTABLISHMENT OF INCOME AND INHERITANCE TAXES.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, that the constitution of the State of Ohio, in order to the establishment of income and inheritance taxes, be amended as follows:

ARTICLE XII. Sec. 9. Not less than fifty per centum of the income and inheritance taxes that may be collected by the State shall be returned to the county, ward, district, city, village, or township in which said income or inheritance taxes are collected, or to any of the same, as may be provided by law.

THEIR LAST "HOMECOMING"

The above sextet of Ohio State gridiron stalwarts will take part in their third and last homecoming game when the Bucks take on Wisconsin at the Stadium November 1st. All are Seniors and in their last year of competition.

Although pictured as a ball carrier, Fessler is back at his old position, right end, where he gained All-American honors in 1928 and '29. He is a Youngstown boy. Richard Larkins holds down the other end and hails from East Liverpool, while Russell Taylor and Robert Horn are both back of the line. Taylor is a halfback from Sandusky while Horn is a Columbus man and plays at fullback when Fessler is on the line.

Sam Selby, West Middletown, has been a bulwark at guard for three years while Bill Griffith, Cleveland Husky, is one of the best tackles in the Big Ten.

Ohio Owes It To Himself To Return

U. S. Senator
Roscoe C. McCulloch

His record in office shows that he distinctly deserves to be returned to the Senate. He is a statesman of the McKinley school—fearless, clean and capable.

He vigorously opposes the lowering of our standards of living as advocated by the internationalists.

He is opposed to those who have voted for tariff for revenue only and for the letting down of the bars of immigration to the hordes of cheap labor from abroad.

He fearlessly fights to protect our business, our wages, our agriculture and our homes.

A vote for McCulloch is a vote for American standards.
